HAPUNA BEACH STATE RECREATION AREA CLOSED DUE TO HIGH SURF

HONOLULU – The Department of Land and Natural Resources (DLNR) will close Hapuna Beach State Recreation Area today for public safety, due to continuing high surf conditions. Hawaii County Water Safety officials determined that Hapuna beach needs to again remain closed for today.

The Waialea section of the park will also remain closed today.

Water Safety officials will assess ocean conditions tomorrow morning and State Parks will follow their recommendation at that time.
